

CLASSES

There are 24 lectures and classes, for every skill level from beginner to advance. You will find new techniques and patterns as well as old, tried-and-true methods and patterns taught during the afternoon and evening of setup and the three days of the show. Experienced, nationally-known teachers, some of them our own members, will be here to help you learn new and wonderful things. Learn from the best! Be sure to sign up early to make sure you are registered for the workshops that are your first choices.

How to Register for Lectures and Classes

1. Use a separate registration form for each person. You may photocopy the form.
2. Mark the workshops you want to take and give a 1st and 2nd choice of workshop for each day by marking a "1" or a "2" next to the workshop number. Include payment for your first choice only.
3. Mail your registration form to QU Registration, Cecile Hannaway, 3959 Rosebay Ct., Fairfax, VA 22033, with your check or money order made out to "Quilters Unlimited".

WE DO NOT ACCEPT CREDIT CARDS.

4. There is no on-line or telephone registration.
5. Walk-in registration at the show is available only for workshops that are not filled.
6. Please email channaway05@aol.com with questions regarding classes, and Langhouse@aol.com with questions about the quilt show.

Workshop Cancellation Policy

1. Cancellations received by May 1, 2010, will receive a full refund less a $25 processing fee.
2. Cancellations received after May 1, 2010, will not receive a refund.
3. Telephone cancellations will be accepted. (703-631-2435)

Teachers' Assistants

Please volunteer to be a Teacher's Assistant. Each workshop needs one assistant to help the teacher start on time, take roll, and distribute handouts, etc. The assistant must be registered and have paid for the class. Please contact channaway05@aol.com to volunteer.

Volunteers

Quilters Unlimited members who volunteer for a minimum of a two hour work period at the show receive a special admission rate. This volunteer work period must be confirmed by the volunteer coordinator to the class registration committee by May 15th for the member to receive the special admission price and wristband with the class admission.
